

Vocabulary Study Menu

Instructions: In order to most effectively study vocabulary, please select an option from the list for your method of vocabulary study. It is expected that you study for 15 minutes each night. The ideas are meant to help you find new ways of studying and will hold you more accountable for your vocabulary study time. If you think of a strategy of studying vocabulary that is not on the list, please share it with me!

Choose one of the following for your study time. Make sure you follow all instructions.

1. Create your own Quizlet flashcard set of our current vocabulary words. Study the flashcards for 10 minutes. Then, create and complete a test in Quizlet.	2. Create your own mini-dictionary of our current vocabulary words by using at least half of the words and defining the word by drawing a picture or using the word correctly in a sentence. *You may want to do this on a computer!	3. Create a crossword puzzle with at least 15 words from our current vocabulary list. After making a crossword puzzle, go ahead and complete it. *Remember, there needs to be written clues other than just "word for...".
4. Create your own physical set of flash cards with index cards of our current vocabulary set. Study them for 15 minutes. Maybe a draw a picture on each card it that helps you remember it!	5. Write a short paragraph of 6-7 sentences using many vocabulary words from our current set. The paragraph must be in Spanish and relate to the vocabulary theme. Turn in the paragraph to Mr. Clark so he can check it.	6. Create a comic strip of at least 7 scenes that show use of our current vocabulary set. The speech bubbles should be in Spanish and relate to the vocabulary theme. You may draw or use online programs to create it. Turn in the comic strip to Mr. Clark for possible extra credit.
7. Use my.hrw.com and complete a vocabulary worksheet for our current chapter and lesson. Print out the worksheet and complete it. Turn it in to Mr. Clark for possible extra credit.	8. Call the class Google Voicemail (540-458-1872) and leave a message dictating 20 vocabulary words from our current lesson. The call will ALWAYS go to voicemail and I will check the voicemail to hear your vocabulary dictation.	9. Pick 10 different words of our vocabulary set and write a complete sentence for each word. Make sure to proofread your sentences for grammar and spelling mistakes. Turn it in to Mr. Clark for possible extra credit.